

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)

Defenses: Admissions and Denials. (1) In responding to a pleading, a party must (A) state in short and plain terms its defenses to each claim asserted against it; and (B) admit or deny the allegations asserted against it by an opposing party. (2) A denial must fairly respond to the substance of the allegation. (3) A party that intends in good faith to deny all the allegations of a pleading – including the jurisdictional grounds – may do so by general denial. A party that does not intend to deny all the allegations must either specifically deny designated allegations or generally deny all except those specifically admitted. (4) A party that intends in good faith to deny only part of an allegation must admit the part that is true and deny the rest.
